Data Handling Subsystem

August 15, 2005

1 Introduction

The SAS data handling system provides the lower layers for the SAS. It takes care of all the external interfaces of tasks and libraries, such as handling of parameters, accessing data files and handling/reporting errors.

2 Components

The SAS data handling system consist of three parts:

- Error handling, package error
- Parameter interface, package param
- Data Access Layer, package dal

References